

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am pleased to provide a recommendation for Daniel Swan in relation to any UX Product Designer role he may pursue. As someone who has supervised Daniel for five years at Appfigures, I am well-positioned to comment on his skills and the value he has brought to our organization.

In his time at Appfigures, Daniel has contributed to the formation of our UX design approach and participated in the creation of several vital products. His meticulous nature and commitment to user-focused design principles have consistently driven him to craft accessible and engaging user interfaces.

Daniel possesses noteworthy design abilities across several mediums, and has maintained a record of delivering high-quality work. Moreover, he is adept at collaborating with others, particularly when working alongside our development team to guarantee the accurate and efficient execution of designs. His ability to articulate intricate design ideas to those without a design background has proven to be an indispensable asset.

In conclusion, I endorse Daniel for any UX or Product Design role. As a diligent and skilled designer, he would undoubtedly prove to be a valuable contributor to any team. Should you need additional information, please do not hesitate to reach out to me.
